EMAIL CAMPAIGN

CAMPAIGN PHILOSOPHY

The email a homeowner opens and thinks: how did she know that?

The answer is always the same. She spent 36 years inside the system. Every email carries intelligence that only someone who sat on the other side of the desk could deliver.

This is not a mortgage newsletter. It's a briefing from a banking insider who now works for you.

THE STANDARD

If a major bank's newsletter could send this email, Tracy doesn't send it.

Audience & Send Profile

From: Tracy MacIntyre

Audience: Past clients, referral partners (Realtors, financial planners, accountants, lawyers), Atlantic Canada homeowners and buyers.

Cadence: Twice monthly, with BoC-triggered bonus sends within 48 hours of major announcements when warranted.

CTA rotation: Website (educational) or phone (ready-to-talk). One per email. Never both.

Sara² Coordination

Tracy's emails own institutional intelligence. Alex's emails own the cross-market and national lens. Same team. Different expertise. Content complements rather than duplicates.

THE FORMAT

A letter from someone who knows things.

First-person. Institutional authority with Atlantic warmth. Never a template. Every email reads like Tracy wrote it for that send, that month, that idea.

Subject	Direct, specific, never clickbait. The institutional angle should be evident when possible. No emoji. Under 60 characters when possible.
Opening	The insider angle. One or two sentences max. Hooks the reader with the institutional reveal.
Body	The intelligence. Institutional context, Atlantic framing, actionable insight. The thing a bank newsletter wouldn't say.
CTA	One action. Website or phone. Rotated across the campaign. Never both in a single send.
Sign-off	"— Tracy" followed by the Atlantic Mortgage Brokers footer. Clean, professional close.

Subject Line Rules

- Direct and specific. Never clickbait, never vague.
- The institutional angle should be evident when possible.
- No emoji in subject lines.
- Under 60 characters when possible.

Sample Subject Lines

- "What your bank's renewal letter isn't telling you"
- "The file banks say no to. And why I say yes."
- "I left TD after 36 years. Here's what I took with me."
- "Year-end mortgage moves your bank won't suggest"

Q2 · OPENING

JUNE · SEND 1

INSIDER REVEAL

Subject: What your bank's renewal letter isn't telling you

The renewal letter arrives and looks straightforward. Tracy breaks down what's actually happening behind the scenes. How banks set renewal rates, what the initial offer is designed to do, and why the first number is never the best number. Institutional intelligence, not speculation.

CTA · WEBSITE (EDUCATIONAL)

JUNE · SEND 2

ATLANTIC

Subject: Summer buying in Atlantic Canada: what the banks see

How institutional lenders treat Atlantic Canada files differently from Toronto and Vancouver. The regional lending dynamics that matter for NS, NB, and ON buyers this summer. Tracy's insider perspective on what makes an Atlantic file move faster.

CTA · PHONE (902.719.4571)

Q2 · AUTHORITY BUILD

JULY · SEND 1

SELF-EMPLOYED

Subject: The self-employed file: what banks check that they don't tell you

How a bank's internal underwriting team evaluates business income. T1 generals, corporate draws, retained earnings. The gap between what you're told and what actually happens. Tracy's 36 years inside the system, applied to the self-employed borrower.

CTA · WEBSITE (EDUCATIONAL)

JULY · SEND 2

PIVOT STORY

Subject: I left TD after 36 years. Here's what I took with me.

The career pivot email. Why Tracy crossed over, what she learned inside the institution, and how that knowledge now works for her clients. The email that makes a referral partner forward it to a colleague. Used once. Not repeated.

Q2 · PRE-APPROVAL DEPTH

AUGUST · SEND 1

PRE-APPROVAL

Subject: Pre-approval: bank version vs. broker version

What a bank pre-approval actually guarantees versus what a broker pre-approval covers. The institutional fine print Tracy used to work with. Now explained for the client's benefit.

AUGUST · SEND 2

ATLANTIC · FALL

Subject: Fall market prep: what I'd do right now if I were buying in Halifax

Atlantic-specific fall market guidance with institutional context. How banks prepare for Q4 volume internally, and what that means for buyers who want to move before winter.

CTA · PHONE (902.719.4571)

September

Q3 · RENEWAL SEASON

SEPTEMBER · SEND 1

RENEWAL

Subject: Your renewal is coming. Here's what your bank is counting on.

The institutional renewal strategy. How banks time their outreach, what the 120-day window means internally, and why waiting for their offer is exactly what they want you to do. Tracy's playbook for getting ahead of it.

CTA · WEBSITE (EDUCATIONAL)

SEPTEMBER · SEND 2

CASE STUDY

Subject: The file banks say no to. And why I say yes.

Case study format, anonymized. A file that was declined by a major bank, and what Tracy saw that the bank missed. Not a sales pitch. A demonstration of institutional knowledge applied differently.

October. November.

October

Q3 · YEAR-END MOVES

OCTOBER · SEND 1

YEAR-END

Subject: Year-end mortgage moves your bank won't suggest

How institutional lenders behave in Q4. What gets approved in October that wouldn't fly in February. Why year-end creates opportunities. What Tracy would tell her own family to do before December.

CTA · WEBSITE (EDUCATIONAL)

OCTOBER · SEND 2

REFERRAL PARTNER EDITION

Subject: What I see from the other side

Specifically written for Realtors, accountants, financial planners, and lawyers. Tracy's institutional lens applied to the referral relationship. What makes a file fundable, what to watch for, and when to call her.

CTA · PHONE (902.719.4571)

November

Q3 · PRE-SPRING POSITIONING

NOVEMBER · SEND 1

EQUITY

Subject: The equity conversation banks avoid having with you

Refinancing and equity access through the institutional lens. How banks assess equity applications internally, what triggers a decline, and why a broker structures it differently. Atlantic market equity positions discussed specifically.

CTA · WEBSITE (EDUCATIONAL)

NOVEMBER · SEND 2

SPRING PRE-APPROVAL

Subject: Spring 2027 starts now: the insider's pre-approval timeline

Why the smartest buyers start their pre-approval process in November, not January. How banks handle Q1 volume internally, and what getting ahead of that wave means for your file.

CTA · PHONE (902.719.4571)

2026 EMAIL CALENDAR

December. The year-end pair.

December

Q4 · YEAR-END AUTHORITY

DECEMBER · SEND 1

YEAR-END AUTHORITY

Subject: The one question banks hope you never ask

Tracy's year-end authority email. The single most powerful question a client can ask their bank at renewal, and what the answer reveals about how they're being treated. Institutional intelligence at its sharpest.

CTA · WEBSITE (EDUCATIONAL)

DECEMBER · SEND 2

YEAR IN REVIEW

Subject: 2026 in review: what I learned from both sides this year

Year-end reflection. The Atlantic Canada mortgage landscape through Tracy's unique lens. Institutional trends, rate environment, what changed, and what she's watching for 2027. Warm sign-off. Forward-looking.

Segmentation Notes

- Past clients approaching renewal. Priority for renewal-focused emails (June Send 1, September Send 1, December Send 1).
- Referral partners. Priority for the pivot story email and any case study content.
- Self-employed clients and prospects. Priority for July Send 1 and any business income content.
- First-time buyers. Priority for pre-approval and fall / spring prep content.

WHAT THESE EMAILS NEVER DO

The guardrails. Strict.

The list of things these emails refuse to do is as important as what they do.

- Sound like a bank newsletter.
- Use generic mortgage education without the institutional layer.
- Include multiple CTAs in a single email.
- Frame the TD career as anything other than expertise.
- Use American English spelling.
- Reference #PremiereMortgage. Always #ChoosePremiere if hashtags are used.
- Feel templated or automated. Every email reads like Tracy wrote it.

The email a homeowner opens and forwards to a friend before they finish reading it.

Coordination With Social

Email content complements but never duplicates social posts. The From the Other Side social series and email topics should reinforce each other without being identical. BoC-triggered bonus emails can be sent within 48 hours of major announcements. Institutional framing required.

Sara² Team Coordination

Tracy's emails focus on institutional intelligence. Alex's emails cover the cross-market and national lens. Same team. Different expertise. Subscribers to both lists get two distinct perspectives, never two versions of the same email.

The email your bank hopes you never read.

Briefings from a banking insider who now works for you. Atlantic Canada. Institutional intelligence. Editorial calm. The trust that comes from having sat at both desks.
