P O S I T I O N I N G

Karen is not a mortgage advisor who happens to live in Winnipeg. She is the Winnipeg mortgage advisor.

The one who knows this city, this market, these buyers, and yes, this weather. Her content should feel like it could only come from someone who drove on Portage Avenue this morning.

And she has Zoe.

*Winnipeg's mortgage advisor.
With Zoe.*

— THE LINE

Unliftable. Every post should feel like Winnipeg, not generic Canadian suburb. A Winnipeg-only post that a Toronto broker could not repurpose.

THE FRANCHISE

Zoe is not a pet feature. Zoe is a content anchor.

She has a personality, a perspective, and a recurring role in the brand. Two to three Zoe appearances every month, minimum. Consistent presence, not random cameo.

ZOE'S TAKE

The recurring commentary series.

Zoe provides commentary on mortgage news, market updates, and life milestones. The tone is warm, light, and distinctly Winnipeg. Zoe is opinionated in the most lovable way.

Rate announcement. Photo of Zoe looking skeptical. "Zoe's take on today's BoC announcement. Why is everyone so stressed? Karen says it's fine."

Client closing. Zoe photobombing a champagne photo. "Zoe is very excited. So are we."

Market update. Zoe looking at a chart like she is reviewing it carefully. "Zoe reviewed the Winnipeg market data for January. Her verdict. Still a great time to have Karen on your side."

WHAT MAKES ZOE A BRAND CHARACTER

- Consistency. Zoe shows up regularly. Not randomly. The audience starts to look for her.
- A defined personality. Skeptic of bad mortgage advice. Enthusiastic supporter of good decisions. Loyal presence at closings.
- Named series. "Zoe's Take" is a recurring fixture, not a one-off gimmick.

WINNIPEG IDENTITY

Deeply local.
Content that feels like Winnipeg,
not generic Canadian suburb.

SEASONAL CONTENT · WINNIPEG WINTER IS REAL

- "Spring market in Winnipeg. Yes, we do have spring. Here is what buyers are doing right now."
- "January in Winnipeg means one thing. It is a great time to be inside looking at listings."
- Pre-winter homeownership checklist post in October. Furnace, pipes, the works.

LOCAL REFERENCES

- Winnipeg Jets. Game-day tie-ins. "Jets win. Karen closes. Winnipeg is thriving."
- The Forks. Community gathering reference, not tourist framing.
- Folklorama. Winnipeg's multicultural festival. A natural moment for inclusive buyer content.
- Neighbourhoods. Osborne Village, St. Boniface, River Heights. Neighbourhood-specific buyer content.

One local reference per month minimum. Content should be unliftable. A Winnipeg-only post that a Toronto broker could not repurpose.

M A N I T O B A M A R K E T E X P E R T I S E

Monthly MB expertise. This is Karen's advantage. Own it every month.

- Manitoba first-time buyer programs and provincial incentives. Updated annually. Know the current ones.
- Winnipeg-area market data. What is the $350K to $500K range doing this quarter?
- Rural Manitoba considerations for buyers outside the city.
- Provincial programs specific to Manitoba that federal programs do not cover.

B O C T H E P R A I R I E L E N S

Rate changes mean something different in Winnipeg.

The math is different. Price points are accessible. First-time buyers at $300K to $450K respond to practical math, not market theory.

"What does a rate change mean for a $385K home in Winnipeg?" Actual dollar math. Winnipeg price point. One post per major BoC announcement, always with Winnipeg-specific numbers.

The Manitoba buyer profile is different from Toronto or Vancouver. What is the real impact here, in dollars, on the home people are actually buying?

PLATFORM APPROACH

Two platforms. One Winnipeg voice.

FACEBOOK • PRIMARY

Winnipeg's strongest local platform

Winnipeg's Facebook community is genuinely strong. Local groups, neighbourhood pages, community events. Longer posts, full Zoe stories, Manitoba program updates, community connection.

INSTAGRAM • SECONDARY

Visual moments

Visual Zoe moments, closing celebrations, Winnipeg seasonal photography, short punchy captions. Reels for quick market takes and Zoe cameos.

MONTHLY RHYTHM

WEEK	CONTENT
Week 1	Manitoba market or program expertise post.
Week 2	Zoe's Take. BoC reaction or client closing.
Week 3	Winnipeg local content. Seasonal, neighbourhood, community event.
Week 4	Personal story or client journey with a Zoe cameo.

ONE LINK MORTGAGE • BROKERAGE BALANCE

Karen is a personal brand under a brokerage umbrella.

Content leads with Karen B. Her name, her face, her dog. One Link Mortgage appears where appropriate (bios, disclosures, occasional brand acknowledgment) but does not dominate the content voice. The personal brand is the differentiator.

EMAIL + SOCIAL COORDINATION

Monthly theme alignment.

- Facebook and Instagram introduce the theme with story or Zoe moment.
- Email deepens it. Manitoba program details, full market breakdown, seasonal homeownership advice.
- Karen's email voice. Warm, personal, like a note from a trusted neighbour.

The flow. Social plants the seed, email follows through with the detail. The same theme, two different depths.

W H A T K A R E N ' S C O N T E N T I S N O T

A clear filter for what stays out. This is what Karen does not do.

- × Generic Canadian broker content that could come from anywhere.
- × Rate-focused or "lowest rate" framing.
- × Corporate tone. Karen is warm and human, always.
- × Zoe used sparingly. Zoe is consistent and present, not a once-a-quarter appearance.
- × Toronto or Vancouver price framing. This is Winnipeg. The numbers and the culture are different.

T H E F I L T E R

Before posting, ask:

Could a Toronto broker repurpose this?

If yes, rework it. If no, post it.
