2026 ANNUAL CONTENT PLAN

EATON MORTGAGE GROUP · KIRK EATON

Market: Burlington, Ontario · Platforms: Facebook, Instagram · Cadence: 1-2 posts per week · Voice: Approachable, informative, first-time-buyer focused

BUILT ON THE STRATEGY

The annual plan turns Kirk's four-week cycle into a year of Burlington-first content for first-time buyers.

Each month follows the same rotation. The Burlington Buyer anchors. First-time buyer education builds long-term authority. Light wit humanizes. Commuter content positions Burlington as the destination.

CONTENT ROTATION — THE FOUR-WEEK CYCLE

WEEK	TYPE	FOCUS
Week 1	The Burlington Buyer	Monthly anchor series. Hyperlocal first-time buyer content. Neighbourhoods, price points, commuter reality.
Week 2	First-Time Buyer Education	Content ladder (Q1 to Q4 sequenced). Progressive education across the year.
Week 3	Light Wit + Agent / Broker	Alternating. Personality posts + Kirk's transparency on the Agent designation.
Week 4	Commuter Market	Burlington as destination, not consolation prize. Quarterly deep-dive + monthly references.

BoC weeks. Interrupt the schedule with a Burlington-specific rate response within 24 hours.

△ Platform Note. Kirk does not post on LinkedIn or Google. Facebook for community and local identity. Instagram for visual and lifestyle. That is the full distribution.

Q2

APR — JUN

DOWN PAYMENT

THE OFFER

THE METHOD

Not all at once. Sequenced so someone who finds Kirk in January and follows through December gets a full education. Each quarter's content builds on the last.

PLATFORM DISTRIBUTION

Two platforms, two roles.

Each platform plays to its strengths. Facebook for community and local identity. Instagram for visual and lifestyle.

FACEBOOK

Community and local identity

Burlington-specific content, The Burlington Buyer, commuter series. Slightly older demographic. More context-heavy posts work here.

Organic reach through Burlington community groups and local parents' groups.

INSTAGRAM

Visual and lifestyle

Burlington imagery. Waterfront, neighbourhoods, the feel of the city. Shorter captions pulled from Facebook content. Stories for quick updates and Q&A.

Reels for the light wit moments. Scripted but spontaneous-feeling.

⚠ No LinkedIn. No Google. The plan does not include LinkedIn or Google content. Kirk's audience lives on Facebook and Instagram, and the brand voice fits both.

HASHTAG PROTOCOL

- Facebook (3 to 5). #EatonMortgageGroup + 2 to 4 topic-relevant tags.
- Instagram (8 to 12). #EatonMortgageGroup + broad + niche + location mix.
- Always include. #EatonMortgageGroup.

COMMON TAG MIX

What Kirk doesn't post is as important as what he does.

The decisions about what not to post are as important as the plan itself. These are the patterns that would pull Kirk away from Burlington—first positioning and into generic GTA broker territory.

OFF-BRAND FOR KIRK

- ✗ General GTA market stats that could apply anywhere
- ✗ Toronto comparison content that positions Burlington as a discount alternative
- ✗ Aggressive rate-competition content
- ✗ Mortgage jargon without immediate plain-English translation
- ✗ Forced humour or meme-spam that doesn't serve a takeaway
- ✗ Punching at other brokers or agents
- ✗ Hiding or minimizing the Mortgage Agent designation. Kirk leans in.
- ✗ Motivational real estate quotes
- ✗ "Best rate" or urgency language
- ✗ Anything that sounds like a corporate bank's marketing

THE FILTER

Does this make a Burlington first-time buyer feel like they found exactly who they were looking for, or could any GTA broker have posted it? If it's the second one, it doesn't go.
