*"Halifax's mortgage team.
For your family."*

WITH YOU • EVERY STEP OF THE WAY

THE DIFFERENTIATOR

A Halifax institution in the making.

Wheeler Mortgage is not just a brokerage. It's a Halifax institution in the making. The Wheeler brand is built on something rare: genuine, unforced personality that feels like Halifax itself.

Family-run. Community-focused. A team that shows up in this city's life because they live it. The brand characters, the street sign, the local references aren't gimmicks. They're a coherent identity that says: these are real people who love this city and happen to be exceptionally good at mortgages.

THE LINE

"Halifax's mortgage team. For your family."

The content goal is to make Wheeler Mortgage the name a Halifax resident thinks of when mortgages come up. Not because they have the most credentials, but because they've been part of their Halifax experience long enough to feel like a neighbour.

The Wheeler Energy

Wheeler is approachable for all buyers. First-timers, growing families, self-employed clients, the file that doesn't fit a standard box. The brand says: let's get through this together and have some fun doing it.

That energy is the differentiator. Halifax-fabric warmth carried by a team that lives in this city. The kind of mortgage conversation that feels like a kitchen table, not a boardroom.

CONTENT ARCHITECTURE

Four pillars. One Halifax voice.

Every Wheeler post must pass one test before it goes up:

THE FILTER

Does this feel like it came from a Halifax team that genuinely loves this city? If it sounds like it came from a corporate brokerage marketing department, it doesn't go up.

PILLAR	MIX	RATIONALE
Personality Halifax Local	35%	The primary differentiator. The Wheeler energy is unmistakable. Halifax-fabric, neighbourhood-specific, warm.
Education (Wheeler Voice)	30%	Mortgage expertise delivered with warmth and Halifax humour. Never dry. The content that makes people understand without realizing they're being taught.
Wheeler Street Muppets + Sign	20%	Recurring visual identity. The Wheeler Street Muppets treatment of the team's real photos. The Wheeler Street sign marking milestones. Highly shareable content built for Halifax audiences.
Social Proof Milestones	15%	Closings, client wins, team milestones. Always warm. Sometimes with the street sign. Real moments, never templated.

Family • Community • Faith

Wheeler is a family-run business that serves Halifax families. Community shows up explicitly in the content: neighbourhood spotlights, local events, the people the team runs into at the grocery store. Faith is in the background, never centred. It shows up lightly during holiday content and year-end reflection. It's part of who the Wheeler family is, not a marketing pillar.

THE BRAND ASSET

The team is the brand. The Wheeler Street Muppets.

Wheeler Mortgage doesn't borrow a brand identity. The team is the brand. Three people on screen, treated in a signature Muppet-style visual register that's become unmistakably Wheeler. Real photos, custom artwork, warm Halifax energy.

The "Wheeler Street Muppets" creative is the single most recognizable element of the Wheeler feed. Recurring. Distinctive. Built around the people who actually do this work.

THE TREATMENT

Real photos. Muppet-style artwork. The team becomes the characters.

The Team

THE LEADER

Matt Wheeler

The face of Wheeler today. Carries the brand forward. The Wheeler Way voice is anchored by Matt across social, email, and team coordination.

THE FOUNDER

Roger Wheeler

Matt's father. The original owner who built the Wheeler name in Halifax. Close to retirement, still part of the team's story. Roger represents the legacy and continuity that makes Wheeler a family business in the truest sense.

JUNIOR BROKER

Luke Jessiman

The next generation of the team. Junior broker bringing fresh energy and a growing client base. Luke's presence in the content reinforces that Wheeler is a team, not a one-person operation.

How They Show Up

The three appear individually and together across the content. Matt anchors The Wheeler Way and most BoC reactions. Roger shows up around legacy moments, milestones, and family-business content. Luke appears in newer client celebrations and content that signals the team's forward momentum.

The Wheeler Street Muppets treatment lifts the team's real photos into a distinctive shareable register. The people are the brand. The artwork is the signature.

THE MILESTONE MARKER

The Wheeler Street sign.

Earned, not used.

The Wheeler Street sign is the team's brand milestone marker. It does not appear on routine posts. It appears when something worth marking has happened.

THE RULE

The sign should feel earned. Overuse kills the effect.

Target: 1-2 appearances per month maximum. Reserved for milestones that genuinely deserve a marker. When the sign shows up, the audience knows something real has happened.

When the Sign Appears

- Client closing milestones, individual or cumulative
- Major Halifax market moments worth marking with city pride
- Business anniversaries and team milestones
- BoC reactions where a moment of Halifax warmth is genuinely warranted

The Wheeler Way • Monthly Series

Monthly personality-forward post where the Wheeler team gives an honest, warm, Halifax-grounded take on a mortgage decision. Not a listicle. Not a press release. Real voice on a real topic.

*"I had three clients this week all ask me the same thing.
Here's what I told all of them."*

The series that makes Halifax readers feel like they know Matt and the team before they ever meet them. Matt anchors the voice; the team shows up where it earns the spot.

THE TWO SURFACES

Facebook primary. Instagram visual.

PLATFORM	ROLE	WHAT LIVES HERE
Facebook	Primary	Longer-form Wheeler voice. Character posts. Halifax community content. BoC reactions. Where Facebook's share mechanics carry the most viral Wheeler content. The home base.
Instagram	Visual	Visual-first execution of the same content. Character imagery performs well here. Reels (1-2x/month) with the team on camera or Halifax b-roll. Stories carry Wheeler Street sign moments.

No LinkedIn. No Google. The Wheeler brand lives where Halifax families actually scroll.

BoC Reaction Protocol

Wheeler's BoC posts are warm and personal. Not data analysis. Not institutional commentary. The team's reaction, in their voice, for Halifax homeowners.

"Here's what just happened. Here's what I'd tell you over coffee. Here's what to do next."

Add Halifax context: what this means for the South End market, what it means for first-time buyers trying to get into Dartmouth. Warm, fast, real. Posted within two hours of the announcement.

Halifax Hyper-Local Content

Posts that only a Halifax local could write. Neighbourhood-specific market commentary (the North End, Clayton Park, Dartmouth Crossing, Timberlea). Tie-ins to Halifax events (Mooseheads, Buskers Festival, Jazz Fest, Natal Day). Seasonal moments (the first patio day, the first snowfall that shuts the city down).

Hyper-local content outperforms generic because people tag their friends.

THE STANDARD

Locked rules for 2026.

- 01 The Wheeler Street Muppets are the team, not a gimmick. Matt, Roger, and Luke are the brand asset. Every Muppets post has a real mortgage takeaway anchored by the people doing the work.
- 02 Wheeler Street sign is earned. Milestone moments only. Overuse kills the effect.
- 03 Halifax is the geography. Every post should feel like it was written by someone who lives here and loves it.
- 04 The Wheeler voice on everything. No post should sound like it came from a marketing department.
- 05 Facebook is primary. Longer-form, community content, share-optimized. Instagram is visual-first adaptation.
- 06 BoC reactions are personal. "Here's what just happened. Here's what I'd tell you over coffee. Here's what to do next."
- 07 Warm, fun, Halifax-fabric on every post. No authority-posturing. No corporate-brokerage energy. The Wheeler voice is community-first, always.
- 08 Family run. Community focused. Faith-driven. All three are who Wheeler is. Faith stays light, never centred.
- 09 One emoji on hook. One on CTA. None mid-paragraph.
- 10 Always #WheelerMortgage + #ChoosePremiere. Never #PremiereMortgage.
- 11 No LinkedIn. No Google. Facebook and Instagram only.

What NOT to Post

- Authority-posturing content. Wheeler is approachable, not corporate.
- Generic mortgage templates without the Wheeler voice on them
- Wheeler Street Muppets posts without a real mortgage takeaway attached
- The Wheeler Street sign on routine posts. It dilutes the milestone value.
- Anything that feels like it came from a corporate brokerage marketing team

Halifax's mortgage team. For your family.

Family run. Community focused. The team that shows up in this city's life because they live it. Halifax. 2026. Wheeler Mortgage.
