B U I L T O N T H E S T R A T E G Y

The annual plan turns Craig's four pillars into a rotation that holds the advisor voice across every month of 2026.

Each month balances Authority, Market Intelligence, Social Proof, and Personal context. The Full Picture is the monthly anchor franchise. BoC announcement weeks add same-day reactive posts read through the Dartmouth-first lens. The result is a year of content that earns attention by being genuinely useful, not by chasing it.

CONTENT MIX — THE FOUR PILLARS

PILLAR	SHARE	CONTENT TYPE
Authority & Education	45%	Mortgage mechanics, misconceptions, self-employed strategy, the "why" behind decisions.
Market Intelligence	25%	Dartmouth-first, Halifax context, NS-specific conditions, BoC reactions.
Social Proof & Case Stories	15%	Anonymized complexity wins. "The bank said no. Craig said yes."
Personal · Behind the Advice	15%	25 years of experience as a story. Humanize without casualizing.

The Full Picture. Monthly. LinkedIn primary, adapted for Facebook and Instagram. Three to four paragraphs, no listicles, ends with a clear takeaway. The post people screenshot and send to a friend. The anchor that defines the year.

T H E D A R T M O U T H / H A L I F A X / N S A N G L E

Every market post is Dartmouth-first, then Halifax context, then broader NS.

The local layer Craig brings to every market post. The local angle is the filter, not a footnote. Atlantic Canadians need an advisor who reads their market, not a national playbook applied locally.

- Dartmouth's distinct market dynamics. Different buyer profile from peninsula Halifax.
- HRM cross-bridge realities. How Dartmouth and Halifax markets actually relate.
- How the Halifax-area rental market affects investment mortgage decisions.
- CMHC quirks in NS lower-price-point markets.
- Atlantic Canada banking realities that don't apply in Toronto or Vancouver.

WHAT THIS PLAN AVOIDS

The patterns that would dilute the advisor voice.

The decisions about what not to post are as important as the plan itself. These are the patterns that would pull Craig into volume-broker territory.

OFF-BRAND FOR CRAIG

- ✗ Generic homeownership tips that could apply anywhere
- ✗ Motivational real estate quotes
- ✗ Rate comparison charts without Craig's interpretation layered on top
- ✗ "Best rate" or urgency language
- ✗ Bank bashing or direct competitor comparisons
- ✗ Anything that sounds like a corporate bank's marketing
- ✗ Personal life content beyond grounded, genuine moments

THE FILTER

Before any post goes out, the question is the same. Does this read like a 25-year advisor speaking, or could any broker have posted it? If it's the second one, it doesn't go.
