2026 ANNUAL CONTENT PLAN

FRANCINE CASALT MORTGAGES · PREMIERE MORTGAGE CENTRE

Market: Ottawa, Ontario · Platforms: Facebook, Instagram, Google (all three every time) · Cadence: ~2 posts per week ·

Service: Social + Email + Site

BUILT ON THE STRATEGY

The annual plan turns Francine's four-week cycle into a year of Ottawa-first, inclusive content.

Each month follows the same rotation. Federal employee content anchors Ottawa expertise. "Everyone Deserves a Home" anchors the inclusive brand. LGBTQ+ calendar moments layer in as they arise.

CONTENT ROTATION — THE FOUR-WEEK CYCLE

WEEK	TYPE	FOCUS
Week 1	Federal Employee	Ottawa-specific expertise. Pension income, relocation mortgages, leave qualification.
Week 2	Everyone Deserves a Home	Monthly signature series. Rotates through underrepresented buyer types. Warm, story-forward.
Week 3	Personal / Values / BoC	Personal reflection, values post, or BoC rate decision through the Ottawa public servant lens.

BoC weeks. Ottawa-specific framing through the public servant perspective. One post per major announcement.

LGBTQ+ moments. Layer into the rhythm as they arise. The schedule serves the strategy, not the other way around.

WHAT FRANCINE NEVER POSTS

The discipline of what to exclude defines the welcome.

Every restriction below protects the trust that makes Francine's audience feel safe in her space.

OFF-BRAND FOR FRANCINE

- ✗ Aggressive sales language or "fast approval" framing. The implicit message is exclusion, not speed.
- ✗ Rate-focused content that positions her as competing on price
- ✗ Generic first-time buyer content without an inclusive lens
- ✗ Any post that could have been written by a broker who doesn't know Ottawa
- ✗ Performative inclusion. A single Pride flag in June followed by silence is worse than nothing.
- ✗ Motivational real estate quotes
- ✗ Bank bashing or competitor comparisons
- ✗ Anything clinical or corporate
