FRANCINE CASALT MORTGAGES · OTTAWA

Market: Ottawa · Platforms: Facebook, Instagram, Google · Service: Social + Email · Voice: Personal, inclusive, Ottawa specialist, LGBTQ+ advocate

BRAND POSITIONING

Francine isn't performing inclusion. She lives it.

Francine Casalt's content doesn't target the LGBTQ+ community as a demographic segment. It reflects who she is and how she works. The result is a brand that genuinely welcomes everyone, and the right buyers feel that difference immediately.

Her second major differentiator is Ottawa expertise. Federal government employees have mortgage considerations nobody else bothers to understand. Francine does.

Whoever you're building a home with, you belong here.

— THE WELCOME

I N C L U S I V E I D E N T I T Y – A L W A Y S O N

Inclusive language is not a campaign. It appears naturally in every post.

The tone signals safety. LGBTQ+ buyers, newcomers, single buyers, and non-traditional families should read any Francine post and feel like this space is for them, without needing to see a rainbow flag.

HOW THE LANGUAGE SHOWS UP

Partners, not "husband and wife"

Clients, not "homebuyers" as a monolith

Varied family configurations in any scenario-based content

Welcoming framing: "whoever you're building a home with"

The signal. The right buyers feel the difference immediately. They don't need to look for it. The content makes the space for them by default.

SIGNATURE SERIES

Everyone Deserves a Home.

One post per month · Underrepresented buyer types

The monthly anchor that defines Francine's brand. Rotates through buyer types most brokers ignore. Each post warm, story-forward, never clinical.

BUYER TYPE ONE

Same-Sex Couples

Navigating joint applications and property titling. The questions other brokers don't think to ask.

BUYER TYPE TWO

Single Buyers

The unique qualification strategy. The pride of doing it alone.

BUYER TYPE THREE

Newcomers to Canada

Credit history, employment history, the pathway to qualification.

BUYER TYPE FOUR

Non-Traditional Families

Blended families, multi-generational purchases, chosen family arrangements.

FORMAT

Warm, story-forward. Two to three paragraphs on Facebook, short punchy version on Instagram. Never clinical.

L G B T Q + C A L E N D A R M O M E N T S

Authentic, not performative.

Calendar moments are not one-off branded posts. They're sustained acknowledgment from a brand that lives this every day.

PRIDE MONTH — JUNE

Not a single rainbow post. A week of dedicated content.

Week 1	Personal statement from Francine. Why this matters to her work.
Week 2	Client story (with permission). A same-sex couple who found the right home.
Week 3	"Everyone Deserves a Home" June edition.
Week 4	Celebration and community acknowledgment.

TRANS DAY OF VISIBILITY — MARCH 31

Thoughtful single post. Not a list of stats. A direct, warm acknowledgment that Francine's practice is a safe space for trans clients, including the often-overlooked practicalities like name and ID considerations in documentation.

NATIONAL COMING OUT DAY — OCTOBER 11

Brief, warm. "Whoever you are, wherever you are in your journey. You belong here, and you belong in a home."

Francine's market-specific expertise.

Monthly post on federal government buyer considerations. Hyper-specific to Ottawa. No other broker is doing this at this level.

- How pension income is assessed for mortgage qualification
- Relocation mortgages. What federal employees moving between postings need to know
- Job security as a qualifying advantage and how to frame it
- PSHCP and financial planning considerations alongside homeownership
- What happens to qualification during leave (parental leave, medical leave) for federal employees

*Federal government employees have mortgage considerations nobody else bothers to understand.
Francine does.*

EMAIL + SOCIAL COORDINATION

Social introduces the theme. Email delivers the depth.

Monthly theme alignment. Social opens with a story or question. Email delivers specific advice and a personal invitation to connect.

Francine's email voice is like hearing from a trusted advisor who also happens to know your name. Not a newsletter. A letter.

SUBJECT LINE STANDARD

Subject lines reflect care. "Something for the federal employees thinking about 2026" not "March Mortgage Update."

BANK OF CANADA — THE OTTAWA LENS

Through the public servant perspective.

- "What does a rate change mean when your income is indexed and your job is permanent?"
- Federal budget connections. When the government announces housing policy, Francine contextualizes it for her specific clients.
- One post per major announcement. Ottawa-specific framing.

PLATFORM APPROACH

Three platforms, three roles.

FACEBOOK

Community & stories

Longer inclusive content, "Everyone Deserves a Home" full posts, Ottawa community connection. The Facebook audience in Ottawa skews community-connected, which fits Francine's brand.

INSTAGRAM

Visual & lifestyle

Inclusive lifestyle imagery, short emotional punches, Pride month visual content, client celebration moments.

GOOGLE

Ottawa SEO

"Ottawa mortgage specialist," "federal employee mortgage Ottawa," local expertise posts.

MONTHLY RHYTHM

A predictable cadence the audience can follow.

WEEK	CONTENT
Week 1	Federal employee content. Ottawa-specific expertise.
Week 2	"Everyone Deserves a Home" series post.
Week 3	Personal / values post or BoC Ottawa lens.
Week 4	Client story or seasonal / community content.

LAYERED MOMENTS

LGBTQ+ calendar moments layer into this rhythm as they arise. The schedule serves the strategy, not the other way around.

WHAT FRANCINE DOES NOT POST

The discipline of what to exclude defines the welcome.

Every restriction below protects the trust that makes Francine's audience feel safe in her space.

OFF-BRAND FOR FRANCINE

- ✗ Aggressive sales language or "fast approval" framing. The implicit message is exclusion, not speed.
- ✗ Rate-focused content that positions her as competing on price
- ✗ Generic first-time buyer content without an inclusive lens
- ✗ Any post that could have been written by a broker who doesn't know Ottawa
- ✗ Performative inclusion. A single Pride flag in June followed by silence is worse than nothing.

THE FILTER

Does this make every reader feel like they belong here, or could any broker in any city have posted it? If it's the second one, it doesn't go.
