Email Campaign

NEWFOUNDLAND · TWICE MONTHLY · KITCHEN TABLE
VOICE

ST. JOHN'S · NEWFOUNDLAND

PREPARED BY STAY SOCIAL

Not a newsletter. A kitchen-table letter.

Nikki's email has one topic, one voice, and one reason to feel like she just sat down across from the reader and said, "here's what you need to know."

*The email that feels like

THE LINE

The forward test. In a province where word-of-mouth is everything, the email should feel like something someone would forward to their sister, their buddy at work, or their parents.

Six parts. One Nikki voice.

T H E F O R M A T

- 1 Subject line
Conversational, specific, feels like Nikki talking. Never Monthly Update.
- 2 Opening line
One personal sentence that draws the reader in.
- 3 Story or insight
150-250 words. NL-anchored. One idea.
- 4 The Nikki angle
Why this matters and what she would say at the kitchen table.
- 5 CTA
One action. Phone or email. Use the renewal line where appropriate.
- 6 Sign-off
Nikki. Warm, plain, and human.

Design rule. Minimal and text-forward. Purple is an accent in the header, not the whole email. Nikki's words are the design.

MONTHLY CALENDAR

Summer into fall.

Warm, useful, NL-specific.

June

	SUBJECT	TOPIC
Jun 1	"What your money actually buys in NL right now"	Summer market snapshot; real NL numbers. $250K in Gander vs. $380K in St. John's. What buyers are seeing.
Jun 15	"The rate decision; what it means here"	BoC Jun 10 follow-up. NL-specific: "Here's what this means for a $320K home in St. John's." Kitchen-table math.

July

	SUBJECT	TOPIC
Jul 1	"Twenty years and one province"	20-year milestone reflection; what she's seen change, what hasn't. The people, the handshakes, the kitchens. Warm, not braggy.
Jul 15	"Your renewal is coming. Don't just sign it."	Renewal education; why the letter from your lender isn't the end of the conversation. NL-specific scenarios. Signature CTA.

August

	SUBJECT	TOPIC
Aug 1	"Self-employed in NL? Read this before you apply."	Fishers, trades, small business; the documentation reality for NL's self-employed buyers. What Nikki sees vs. what banks require.
Aug 15	"The home your parents bought in 1985"	NL heritage properties; what buying an older home in NL actually means. Character, cost, what the inspection will find. Warm, honest.

MONTHLY CALENDAR

Year-end trust. Renewals, planning, gratitude.

September

	SUBJECT	TOPIC
Sep 1	"Fall market, honest numbers"	NL fall market; inventory, pricing, buyer behaviour in St. John's and beyond. No spin, just what she's seeing.
Sep 15	"What today's rate news means for NL"	BoC Sep 16 follow-up. $300K NL scenario. "Here's your actual monthly number."

October

	SUBJECT	TOPIC
Oct 1	"Winter is coming. Here's your checklist."	Pre-winter homeownership prep; NL edition. Furnace, pipes, storm windows, the works. Practical, warm.
Oct 15	"The bank said no. Then they called me."	Alternative lending; NL buyer who was declined, Nikki found a way. The "If not me, then who?" story, told in email depth.

November

	SUBJECT	TOPIC
Nov 1	"What NL's market actually did this year"	Year-in-review preview. Real data, NL communities, what shifted.
Nov 15	"Thinking about 2027? Start here."	Pre-planning guide for NL buyers. What to do now if you want to buy next year. Credit prep, savings, pre-approval timing.

December

	SUBJECT	TOPIC
Dec 1	"Where NL real estate is heading in 2027"	Data-led outlook. What Nikki sees coming based on 20 years of watching this market.
Dec 15	"Thank you, Newfoundland"	Year-end. The families helped, the keys handed over, the kitchen-table moments. Warm, genuine, forward-looking. "If not me, then who?" to close the year.

BOC AND SEGMENTS

When rate news lands, Nikki translates the number.

When a BoC announcement falls near a send date, merge the analysis into that email. Mid-month announcements get one short bonus email within 24 hours. Never more than three emails in a month.

The standard. Short, NL-specific, and plain. Use St. John's, Gander, Corner Brook, CBN, and real payment math instead of national generalities.

SEGMENTATION WHEN THE LIST SUPPORTS IT

SEGMENT	VARIATION
Past clients (renewals)	Renewal-focused. Signature CTA prominent. "Your renewal is approaching."
Active buyers	Timeline-appropriate. "Here's what this means for your purchase."
Referral partners (realtors, lawyers)	Professional tone. "Here's what your clients need to know."
Community contacts	Lighter touch. Relationship-maintaining. 20-year milestone, community work.

VOICE RULES

Short. Warm. Newfoundland to the bone.

EMAIL VOICE RULES

- Subject lines: Conversational. Feels like Nikki talking, not a company emailing. 6-8 words max.
- Tone: Kitchen-table. "Let me tell you something." Not "Dear valued client."
- Data: Always NL-specific. St. John's, Gander, Corner Brook, CBN; real places, real numbers.
- Length: 200-300 words. Respect the reader. Nikki doesn't ramble.
- Design: Minimal. Clean. Purple accent in header, not overwhelming. Text-forward; Nikki's words are the design.
- NL identity: Every email should feel like it could only come from Newfoundland. Regional language where natural. No scrubbing.

PURPLE DAY EMAIL

- Priya's story in Nikki's voice
- Full, authentic, personal
- No mortgage CTA; this isn't a business email, it's Nikki being Nikki
- "If not me, then who?" to close
- Follow-up email first week of April: "The response to Purple Day..."

THE FILTER

*Would someone forward this to their mom in Corner Brook?
If no, rewrite it.*
