LESLEY TENAGLIA • FUSE MORTGAGE • TORONTO, ONTARIO

Platforms: Facebook, Instagram, Google • Cadence: 3 posts/week (12/month) • Voice: Warm, compassionate, solution-oriented 2026 is not a content year. It is a repositioning year.

Banks like RBC are offering 3.75% on prime borrowers. Impossible to beat. Lesley has $40M in renewals in 2026 and is losing 90% to banks or current lenders. Competing for A1 borrowers is a losing battle. The opportunity is the massive underserved market the banks do not want, and Lesley is perfectly positioned to serve it.

Every post, every email, every Google update serves one objective. By December 31, 2026, Lesley Tenaglia and Fuse Mortgage are the recognized alternative lending specialists in Toronto. Not one of several. The one.

The end of generalist content. Generalist content ends in 2026. Specialist content begins now. Every piece of work that ships this year either positions Fuse as the alternative lending authority, or it does not ship.

*"When the bank says no,
I say let's find a way."*

— T H E L I N E

— THE PIVOT

From competing with banks to serving the clients they turn away.

The shift is structural. Every pillar, every audience, every piece of language reorients toward the underserved Toronto borrower. The table below is the change, in plain terms.

OLD FOCUS	NEW FOCUS
Prime A1 borrowers	Bruised credit and alternative lending
Refinancing and renewals for bank clients	Clients the bank turns away
Rate competition	Solution-based, relationship-driven
Co-buying as lead pillar	Reverse mortgages and alternative lending as lead

— THE SIX - MONTH ARC

One pivot, told publicly across seven months.

Jun Pivot announcement. Fuse goes all-in.	Jul B-lender education series launches.	Aug Reverse mortgage awareness. Equity as opportunity.	Sep Referral partner push. Before you lose the deal.	Oct Private lending demystified.	Nov Year-in-review teaser. Who Fuse served.	Dec Full pivot statement. Lesley IS alternative lending.
---	---	--	--	--	---	--

The seven-month arc is the strategy. Every month builds the next. By December the market should not need to be told what Fuse stands for. They should already know.

Three audiences. One through-line.

Audience One

PRIMARY

The "Bank Said No" Client

- WHO Bruised credit, high debt-to-income, self-employed with non-traditional income, new Canadians without Canadian credit history, people going through divorce or life transitions.
- FEELS Embarrassed. Frustrated. Like there is no hope. They do not know where to turn. They have been turned away and are afraid to ask again.
- NEEDS No judgment. Real options. Someone who fights for them. Compassion plus expertise — the combination banks can never offer.

"The bank said no. I'll find a way."

Audience Two

SECONDARY

The Reverse Mortgage Client

- WHO Retired or near-retirement homeowners (55+). Asset-rich, cash-poor. Not ready to downsize. Looking to fund retirement, care costs, or help adult children.
- FEELS Confused about options. Possibly resistant to the idea. Worried about what it means for their home and estate.
- NEEDS Education first. Trust second. Transaction third. Lesley's service-oriented, non-salesy approach is ideal here.

"Your home worked hard for you. Here's how it can keep working."

Audience Three

SUPPORTING

Personal Brand and Community

- ROLE Lesley's warmth, service values, and community involvement (Red Cross, sports family) remain an important trust-builder. Keeps her human and relatable, not a mortgage pitch machine.

— CONTENT PILLARS

Seven pillars, ranked by priority.

01 Alternative Lending NEW PRIMARY

Normalize seeking help with bruised credit. Destigmatize debt and financial difficulty. Position Lesley as the compassionate expert who finds solutions. Tone: empathetic, hopeful, practical.

02 Reverse Mortgages NEW SECONDARY

Education-first. What it is, who it is for, myths versus facts. Humanize the audience. These are smart homeowners, not failures. Framed as opportunity, never desperation. Tone: calm, reassuring, empowering.

03 Referral Partner Content 2× MONTHLY

Targeting realtors and financial planners who encounter rejected deals. "The deal was dead. Then we got the call." Before and after case studies. "Three scenarios where you should call Fuse before closing the file." Facebook primary.

04 Mortgage Education KEEP

101 content. How mortgages work, what to expect, terminology. Broader appeal that builds trust across all segments. Tone: clear, approachable, jargon-free.

05 Market News and BoC KEEP

BoC commentary through the alternative lending lens. Differentiated take nobody else in Toronto is doing. Tone: professional but conversational.

06 Community and Values KEEP

Red Cross, volunteering, sports mom life (volleyball in Moncton, football with Scarboro Thunder). The motivation: deals to freedom to being present for kids. Tone: warm, personal, authentic.

07 Co-Buying DEMOTED

Was primary, now supporting. Keep in rotation but never the lead.

The Alternative Path.

One scenario, fully explained, every month.

Monthly deep-dive on one alternative lending scenario. The goal: make the complex accessible and remove the stigma that "alternative" means failure. Topics across 2026:

B-lenders	What they are, who they serve, why they are not a last resort.
Bridge financing	When it works and what it actually costs.
Private lending	The short-term tool, not a long-term trap.
Self-employed	Income and alternative qualification. Documentation reality.
Credit recovery	The path back to A-lending. Not a dead end. A detour with a destination.
Bank said no	The actual next step. Fear, shame, reality, then the path.

Format. Carousels on Instagram (education-first), longer Facebook posts with the full explanation, Google posts for SEO.

— T H E F U S E I D E N T I T Y

The brand name is an asset.

Fuse means bringing together what seems incompatible. Fusing the conventional and alternative mortgage worlds. Fusing the client's situation with the right product. Monthly "Fuse philosophy" content explains what the name means to Lesley, how Fuse approaches a file that conventional lenders rejected, and the belief that every financial situation deserves a solution, not a door closed.

— M E S S A G I N G F R A M E W O R K

The core positioning. The lines we repeat.

The north star. Lesley Tenaglia: the mortgage broker for the clients banks do not want. Not a tagline to use verbatim. A direction for every piece of content shipped this year.

KEY MESSAGES

- "When the bank says no, I say let's find a way."
- "You're not a lost cause. You're just not a bank client."
- "I specialize in the clients who need me most."
- "Debt doesn't define your future. The right mortgage can change it."
- "Your home is your biggest asset. Let it work for you." REVERSE MORTGAGE

— W H A T W E N E V E R S A Y

- ✗ Never shame the audience for their credit or debt situation.
- ✗ Never use "bad credit". Use "bruised credit" or "non-traditional borrower".
- ✗ Never be salesy or transactional. Lesley is a trusted advisor, not a closer.
- ✗ Never "Mortgage Agent". Always "Mortgage Broker".
- ✗ Never generic rate-shopping language.
- ✗ Never content that positions Fuse as a generalist brokerage.

— WEEKLY CADENCE

Three posts a week.

One disciplined rhythm.

DAY	PILLAR	EXAMPLE TOPICS
Monday	Alternative Lending and Education	"What is bruised credit, and can you still get a mortgage?" / "5 things that hurt your credit score."
Wednesday	Reverse Mortgage or Market News	"Is a reverse mortgage right for you?" / BoC reactions / Rate updates.
Friday	Personal, Community, Values	Red Cross / Sports mom life / Client wins / "Why I do this work."

— PLATFORM APPROACH

Facebook

REFERRAL NETWORK

Referral partner content, longer case study posts, community credibility with Toronto broker and realtor networks. The Alternative Path series in full form.

Instagram

BRAND REPOSITIONING

"The Alternative Path" carousels, Fuse brand identity content. Clean, professional aesthetic. Alternative lending should look authoritative, not fringe.

Google

SEO AUTHORITY

Long-form posts targeting "alternative mortgage Toronto," "B-lender Toronto," "private mortgage Toronto," "reverse mortgage Toronto." 2x/month evergreen.

— BOC ALTERNATIVE LENS

When BoC moves, Lesley's commentary is for a different audience. "What does a rate change mean for someone on a B-lender product working toward A qualification?" "Private mortgage holders: here's what to watch for this quarter." The refinancing calculus for alternative lending clients at renewal. One post per major BoC announcement, always through the alternative lens. This is differentiated commentary nobody else is doing.

— WHAT LESLEY NO LONGER POSTS

A short list. Strictly enforced.

- ✗ First-time buyer content or FTHB program explanations.
- ✗ Generic rate comparison graphics.
- ✗ Anything that positions Fuse as a generalist brokerage.
- ✗ "Best rate" or rate-shopping language.
- ✗ Content that could belong to any Toronto mortgage broker's feed.

— THE FILTER

*Does this position Fuse
as a generalist brokerage,
or as THE alternative lending specialist in Toronto?*

IF GENERALIST, KILL IT

The destination. By December 31, 2026, when a Toronto realtor or financial planner thinks "alternative lending," they think Fuse. When a homeowner Googles "the bank said no Toronto," Fuse shows up. When a 60-year-old asks their adult child about reverse mortgages, Lesley's name comes up. That is the year.
