CAMPAIGN PHILOSOPHY

The email Halifax homeowners actually open.

Wheeler email doesn't feel like a mortgage newsletter. It feels like the team sat down and wrote you a letter. The Wheeler Street Muppets show up occasionally. Halifax is always the backdrop. Every email has genuine value.

This is the email that makes someone forward it to a friend who's thinking about buying.

THE STANDARD

*If a corporate brokerage could send this email, Wheeler doesn't send it.

Audience & Send Profile

From: Matt & The Wheeler Mortgage Team

Audience: Past clients, Halifax homeowners, first-time buyers, local community.

Cadence: Twice monthly, with BoC-triggered bonus sends within 48 hours of major announcements.

CTA rotation: Website (educational) or phone/email (ready to talk). One per email. Never both.

Coordination With Social

Email content complements but never duplicates the Facebook and Instagram posts from the same week. Character emails use different scenarios than character social posts in the same month. The Wheeler Street sign appears in email approximately twice a year for major milestones. Not routine.

THE FORMAT

A letter from Halifax's mortgage team.

Conversational. First-person. Halifax-grounded. Character references where they earn it. Never templated. Every email reads like Wheeler wrote it for that send, that month, that idea.

Subject	Warm, direct. The kind of subject line a friend would write. Halifax references when natural. Character names for character emails. No ALL CAPS, no excessive punctuation. Under 50 characters when possible.
Opening	Personal, local, or funny. Sets the tone immediately. No generic salutations.
Body	Mortgage insight in the Wheeler voice. Halifax context always. The kind of email that delivers value without feeling like a lecture.
CTA	One action. Website or phone/email. Rotated across the campaign. Never both in a single send.
Sign-off	"— Matt & The Wheeler Mortgage Team" followed by the WheelerMortgage.ca footer and Halifax NS line.

WHAT THESE EMAILS NEVER DO

The guardrails. Strict.

The list of things these emails refuse to do is as important as what they do.

- Sound like they came from a corporate brokerage.
- Use fear-based urgency tactics.
- Include multiple CTAs in a single email.
- Feel templated or automated.
- Reference LinkedIn or Google. Wheeler's world is Facebook, Instagram, and email.
- Sound authority-posturing or corporate-stiff. The Wheeler voice is warm and approachable.
- Lose the Halifax identity. Every email should feel rooted in this city.

The email a Halifax homeowner opens and forwards to a friend before they finish reading it.

BoC-Triggered Bonus Emails

When a major rate announcement happens, a bonus email can land in subscribers' inboxes within 48 hours. Same Wheeler voice. Over-coffee delivery. Halifax framing. Always institutional context translated for the regular person sitting at their kitchen table.

Wheeler Street Sign in Email

The sign shows up in email approximately twice a year for major milestones. Mid-year reflection (September) and year-end (December). Treated the same way as in social: earned, never routine.

The email that feels like a coffee with Halifax's mortgage team.

Twice a month. Conversational. Halifax-rooted. Genuine value every time. Family run, community focused, with you every step of the way.
