The email for the people who make serious financial decisions.

Craig's email is The Full Picture in long form. Every send gives the reader something they won't get from a bank or a volume broker. The complete view of a mortgage decision, explained by someone with twenty-five years of context behind it.

No fluff. No filler. No monthly-update energy. One topic, fully explored, with Halifax and Nova Scotia specificity. For referral partners, the email that makes them confident sending the most complex client. For past clients, the email that reminds them why they chose Craig in the first place.

//

*The rate is one number.
Here's every other number that matters.*

— THE LINE

Six parts.

Every time.

The same skeleton on every email. First-person. Calm. Direct. The voice of someone who has watched this market for a quarter century and is no longer impressed by hype. The structure stays consistent. The content never does.

- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| 01 · SUBJECT | Direct, authority-signalling, never generic. Six to eight words. No "monthly update" energy. |
| 02 · OPENING | One sentence that reframes something the reader assumed. The line that earns the scroll. |
| 03 · FULL PICTURE | Two hundred to three hundred words. One mortgage decision, fully explored. The numbers that matter beyond the rate. |
| 04 · THE ANGLE | What twenty-five years of advisory practice sees that the bank doesn't show you. The reveal that earns the read. |
| 05 · CTA | One action. Phone for ready-to-talk. Website for educational. Rotated across the campaign. Never both in a single send. |
| 06 · SIGN-OFF | "— Craig" followed by the contact line. Phone, email, website. Nothing more. |

PRE-APPROVAL REFRAME

"Pre-approval doesn't mean what you think"

The Full Picture on what pre-approval actually guarantees, and what it doesn't. Halifax buyers in the $350K to $500K range. What can change between pre-approval and closing. The numbers nobody at the bank explains.

BOC REACTION

"The rate changed. Here's what actually matters."

Bank of Canada June 10 follow-up. Halifax-specific. What this means for a purchase closing in sixty days, a renewal in ninety days, and the call Craig would take right now. No hedging.

SELF-EMPLOYED

"Self-employed? Stop apologizing for your income."

The Full Picture on self-employed qualification in Nova Scotia. How lenders read non-traditional income. What documentation matters. What Craig positions differently than the bank's underwriter does.

JULY · SEND 2

RENEWAL STRATEGY

"Your renewal letter is not the final offer."

Renewal strategy. Why the letter from the lender is a starting point, not an endpoint. What Craig checks before his clients sign anything. Halifax-specific rate comparison.

AUGUST · SEND 2

CASE STUDY

"The bank said no. Here's what I'd tell you."

Complex file case study, anonymized. A client who was declined by the bank. What Craig saw that the institution missed. The outcome. Advisory practice in action, not a sales pitch.

MARKET READ

"Fall market in Halifax. The honest read."

What Craig sees in the Nova Scotia market right now. Inventory, pricing, buyer behaviour. Not the headline. The ground truth from someone who's been watching this market for twenty-five years.

Bank of Canada September 16 follow-up. Three scenarios. A buyer closing in sixty days. A renewal in Q1 2027. An investor weighing a purchase. Halifax numbers. No hedging.

WHAT RATE HIDES

"Your rate is not your mortgage"

REFERRAL PARTNER

"What every Realtor should know about complex files"

Referral partner email. Craig as the resource for files that aren't straightforward. Self-employed, investment, credit challenges, high ratios. What to look for. When to call.

November

NOVEMBER · SEND 1

HALIFAX DATA

"What Halifax's market actually did this year"

Year-in-review. Data, not vibes. What moved. What didn't. What surprised Craig after twenty-five years in this market. The kind of honest read serious buyers and renewers actually use.

— CTA · WEBSITE (EDUCATIONAL)

NOVEMBER · SEND 2

PLANNING GUIDE

"Planning for 2027? Start with these numbers."

Year-end planning guide. What serious buyers and renewers should be doing right now. Pre-approval timing. Rate environment. The conversation Craig would have today with a client thinking ahead.

The year-end pair. Reflection and gratitude.

— DECEMBER · REFLECTION & GRATITUDE

December

DECEMBER · SEND 1

REFLECTION

"Twenty-five years of the full picture"

Year-end reflection tied to the milestone. What Craig has learned. What's changed in the market. What hasn't. The advisory practice, not the transaction count. The email that makes a referral partner forward it to a colleague.

— CTA · WEBSITE (EDUCATIONAL)

DECEMBER · SEND 2

GRATITUDE

"Thank you, Halifax."

Gratitude. The clients, the trust, the big decisions. Warm close. A forward look at 2027 without selling anything. The signature phrase as the closing note. No pressure. Just good advice.

— CTA · PHONE (902.209.4518)

— BANK OF CANADA BONUS PROTOCOL

When a Bank of Canada announcement lands near a scheduled send, the analysis merges into that send. When it lands mid-month, a bonus email goes out within twenty-four hours. Three questions answered every time. What it means for buyers closing in sixty days. What it means for renewals. What Craig would tell a client who called him right now. Never more than three emails in a month.

The guardrails.

Strict.

The list of things these emails refuse to do is as important as what they do. Twenty-five years of advisory practice means knowing what to leave out. The discipline is the brand.

O F F - B R A N D F O R T H E I N B O X

- × Sound like a bank's marketing department or a volume broker's newsletter
- × Use clickbait subject lines, fear-based urgency, or "monthly update" energy
- × Include multiple CTAs in a single send. One action per email, always
- × Feel templated or automated. Every send reads like Craig wrote it for that idea, that month
- × Generic homeownership tips that could apply anywhere in the country. Halifax and Nova Scotia stay in the frame
- × First-time buyer content as the main thrust. That isn't Craig's lane
- × Reference #PremiereMortgage. Always #ChoosePremiere if hashtags are used in companion social
