Market: Sudbury and Northern Ontario · Platforms: Facebook (primary), Instagram, LinkedIn, Google · Cadence: 1 to 2 posts per week · Voice: Warm, grounded, unpretentious

B U I L T O N T H E S T R A T E G Y

The annual plan turns the Good Fit philosophy into a four-week rotation that holds across every month of 2026.

Each month follows the same shape. "What Good Fit Looks Like" anchors. Family content provides warmth and authenticity. Market education builds Northern Ontario authority. Google SEO captures Sudbury search. BoC announcement weeks add a same-day reactive post read through the Northern Ontario lens.

WEEK	TYPE	FOCUS
Week 1	Market Education	Northern Ontario market update, educational content. Sudbury-specific always.
Week 2	Family & Community	Authentic Northern Ontario life. A Saturday in Sudbury, why I do this work, life moments.
Week 3	What Good Fit Looks Like	The signature series. Monthly anonymized client story. Ends with what "fit" meant.
Week 4	Values & Philosophy	LinkedIn professional content. Good Fit philosophy, referral community, industry perspective.

What Good Fit Looks Like. Monthly. The signature series. First-person plural from Rico's perspective. Always ends with what "fit" meant in this specific case. The post people screenshot and send to a friend.

Each month follows the same four-week shape. BoC weeks add a same-day reactive post, highlighted in cream. Every post carries the Northern Ontario lens and the Good Fit philosophy.

June "Summer starts, spring market wrapping"

WEEK	TYPE	TOPIC
Week 1	Market Education	Sudbury spring market wrap-up. What moved, what is still sitting, what that tells us about the summer ahead.
BoC Jun 10	BoC Response	"Here is what today's rate decision means if you are buying in Sudbury or Northern Ontario." Calm, one paragraph, through the Good Fit lens.
Week 2	Family & Community	A Saturday in Sudbury, summer edition. What a weekend looks like for a Northern Ontario family when the weather finally turns.
Week 3	What Good Fit Looks Like	The mine worker. Needed flexibility built into the payment schedule. The Good Fit was about the structure, not the rate.
Week 4	Values & Philosophy	"Why I call it Good Fit." The origin of the philosophy. Not the best rate. The right mortgage for your life.

July "Northern Ontario summer"

WEEK	TYPE	TOPIC
Week 1	Market Education	Ontario first-time buyer programs explained for Sudbury buyers. FHSA, HBP, land transfer rebate. What actually applies here.
BoC Jul 22	BoC Response	Northern Ontario lens. What today's decision means for Sudbury buyers and those watching the market over summer.
Week 2	Family & Community	Northern Ontario life moments. A summer afternoon on a Northern lake. Why this is home.
Week 3	What Good Fit Looks Like	The teacher in Capreol. Buying her first home. What fit looked like for her budget and timeline.
Week 4	Values & Philosophy	"The Sudbury buyer is not anxious." Why Northern Ontario has a different relationship with homeownership, and why that is a good thing.

August "Late summer, lighter rhythm"

WEEK	TYPE	TOPIC
Week 1	Market Education	Rural vs urban Northern Ontario. What the financing differences look like. Sudbury vs Val Caron vs Capreol vs Chelmsford.
Week 2	Family & Community	Why I do this work. Reflections anchored in family, community, the actual reason.
Week 3	What Good Fit Looks Like	The self-employed contractor. Sudbury based. Income looked complicated on paper. Fit meant finding the lender who could read the whole picture.
Week 4	Values & Philosophy	"Good Fit is not a slogan." How the philosophy shows up in the actual decisions we make with clients. Real examples, no fluff.

September "Fall market ramps up"

WEEK	TYPE	TOPIC
Week 1	Market Education	Fall market in Sudbury. Buyers who waited through summer are now serious. What has changed since spring.
BoC Sep 16	BoC Response	Northern Ontario lens. Fall buyers watching rates closely. What this means for their timeline.
Week 2	Family & Community	Back to school in Sudbury. A Northern Ontario family navigating the September reset.
Week 3	What Good Fit Looks Like	The couple refinancing to help their parents. The conversation that led there. Good Fit was the family arrangement, not the product.
Week 4	Values & Philosophy	Sudbury Realtor community. Why referral relationships matter and how Good Fit thinking benefits agents too.

October "Education forward"

WEEK	TYPE	TOPIC
Week 1	Market Education	Mortgage structures for mine workers. Shift work, variable income, union benefits. What Glencore and Vale employees need to know.
BoC Oct 28	BoC Response	Northern Ontario lens. What today's decision means heading into the quieter winter market.
Week 2	Family & Community	Hockey season in Sudbury. A game at Sudbury Arena. What Northern Ontario fall really looks like.
Week 3	What Good Fit Looks Like	The young family in Valley East. Single income, one parent at home. Needed a mortgage that worked around that reality.
Week 4	Values & Philosophy	"Fit beats rate, every time." The cases where the lowest rate was the wrong answer, and what the right answer was.

November "Pre-winter, serious buyers"

WEEK	TYPE	TOPIC
Week 1	Market Education	Pension considerations for public sector workers. Teachers, nurses, City of Sudbury employees. How stable income and pension affect mortgage options.
Week 2	Family & Community	Northern Ontario in November. The quiet before winter. What this season means for a family rooted here.
Week 3	What Good Fit Looks Like	The nurse at Health Sciences North. Pension considerations, stable income, wanted payment flexibility for shift premiums.
Week 4	Values & Philosophy	"Why I stayed in Sudbury." Community roots, family, what it means to serve the place you are from.

December "Reflection and planning"

WEEK	TYPE	TOPIC
Week 1	Market Education	New year planning for Northern Ontario buyers. What to have ready if you are buying in 2027.
BoC Dec 9	BoC Response	Year-end rate decision through the Sudbury lens. What it means for buyers planning a 2027 move.
Week 2	Family & Community	Holiday season in Northern Ontario. Gratitude, community, family. Authentic.
Week 3	What Good Fit Looks Like	Year-end reflection. "The Good Fits that mattered most this year." Looking back on 2026.
Week 4	Values & Philosophy	"Mortgages that fit your life." Year-end commitment to the same philosophy for 2027.

What Good Fit Looks Like.

Seven stories that define the year.

Monthly anonymized client story. First-person plural from Rico's perspective. Always ends with what "fit" meant in this specific case.

Not: "We saved our client 0.15 percent on their rate."

Yes: "This family needed a mortgage that worked around shift rotations and an upcoming parental leave. Here is what we structured."

MONTH	STORY ANGLE
June	The mine worker. Needed flexibility built into the payment schedule. Good Fit was about the structure, not the rate.
July	The teacher in Capreol. Buying her first home. What fit looked like for her budget and timeline.
August	The self-employed contractor. Sudbury based, income looked complicated on paper. Fit meant finding the lender who could read the whole picture.
September	The couple refinancing to help their parents. The conversation that led there. Good Fit was the family arrangement, not the product.
October	The young family buying their first home in Valley East. Needed a mortgage that worked around a single income while one parent stayed home.
November	The nurse at Health Sciences North. Pension considerations, stable income, but wanted payment flexibility for shift premiums.
December	Year-end reflection. "The Good Fits that mattered most this year." A compilation piece looking back on 2026.
