2026 EMAIL CAMPAIGN STRATEGY

FRANCINE CASALT MORTGAGES · PREMIERE MORTGAGE CENTRE

Service: Social + Email + Site · Tone: Like hearing from a trusted advisor who also happens to know your name

EMAIL PHILOSOPHY

Social introduces the theme. Email delivers the depth.

Francine's emails are letters. Each one reads like it came from someone who genuinely sees and respects the person reading it. No sales funnels, no urgency language, no "rates are dropping, act now." Just warmth, honesty, and a real invitation to connect, whoever you are and however you're building a home.

The inclusive identity that defines Francine's social voice carries through every email. Language is natural, welcoming, and never assumes the reader's background, family structure, or identity.

Subject lines reflect care, not clickbait. Personal, specific, warm. Every send is signed by Francine.

CAMPAIGN TYPES — FIVE WAYS FRANCINE SHOWS UP

Five distinct campaign types, each with a defined purpose and rhythm. "Everyone Deserves a Home" Deep Dives anchor the year. Ottawa Federal Employee Spotlights deliver hyper-specific expertise. Seasonal campaigns mark the year's turning points. BoC emails appear selectively. A welcome sequence brings new subscribers in.

01 THE SIGNATURE EMAIL

"Everyone Deserves a Home" Deep Dives

Monthly send · social teases the buyer story, email tells it fully

The signature series in email form. The email that makes someone forward it to a friend who's been afraid to start the process.

STRUCTURE

1. Open with a real scenario. The client's situation, what they were feeling, what they were afraid to ask.
2. The context. What makes this buyer type's journey unique (same-sex couple, single buyer, newcomer, non-traditional family).
3. The process. What Francine actually did. The questions she asked, the lenders she matched, the conversations that mattered.
4. The outcome. Not just the closing, but how the client felt. The moment they knew this was their home.
5. The welcome. "If this sounds like your story, or someone you know, I'd love to have that conversation."
6. Close. Warm sign-off from Francine.

BUYER TYPE ROTATION

- Same-sex couples. Joint applications, property titling, the questions other brokers don't ask.
- Single buyers. The pride and strategy of doing it alone.
- Newcomers to Canada. Credit history, employment gaps, the real pathway.
- Non-traditional families. Blended, multi-generational, chosen family.
- Federal employees. Ottawa-specific qualification considerations.

SUBJECT LINE EXAMPLES

"They weren't sure a broker would understand their situation"

"She bought her first home alone. Here's what that took."

"He moved to Ottawa two years ago. Last week, he got the keys."

"Two names on the title. One conversation that changed everything."

0 2 OTTAWA EXPERTISE

Ottawa Federal Employee Spotlight

Bi-monthly send · six per year, hyper-specific to Ottawa's federal workforce

Social posts the quick insight. Email delivers the full explainer.

STRUCTURE

1. Open with a real question Francine gets from federal employees.
2. The explainer. Plain-language breakdown of a specific federal employee mortgage consideration.
3. Real numbers or scenarios where possible. What this actually looks like in practice.
4. The pivot. "If you work for the federal government and you're thinking about buying, renewing, or refinancing, this is exactly the conversation I'm here for."
5. Francine's contact info + CTA.

TOPIC ROTATION

EMAIL	TOPIC
1 (Jun)	How pension income is assessed. What lenders see vs what you earn.
2 (Aug)	Relocation mortgages. Moving between postings without losing your qualifying position.
3 (Oct)	What happens to qualification during parental or medical leave.
4 (Dec)	Year-end federal employee mortgage review. What to check before the calendar turns.
5 (Feb)	PSHCP and financial planning alongside homeownership.
6 (Apr)	Job security as a qualifying advantage. How to frame it for lenders.

SUBJECT LINE EXAMPLES

"Something for the federal employees thinking about 2026"

"Your pension counts for more than you think"

"A note for anyone on parental leave wondering about their mortgage"

"Before your posting changes, a few things worth knowing"

03 CALENDAR-DRIVEN

Seasonal Campaigns

Three sends per year · each tied to inclusion, Ottawa community, and Francine's values

Calendar-driven. Each one ties back to who Francine is and how she shows up.

PRIDE MONTH · JUNE

"Whoever You're Building a Home With"

Pride, inclusion, and what it means to work with a broker who lives this every day

CONTENT

- Francine's personal reflection on why inclusion matters in her work. Not as a policy, as a practice.
- A real story (with permission). A same-sex couple who found a broker who understood their questions.
- The Ottawa LGBTQ+ community. Resources, events, what Francine supports.

CTA

"If you've been waiting to find the right person to talk to, I'm here."

FALL MARKET · SEPTEMBER

B

"Everyone's Ottawa"

Ottawa in September. The market opens, the community gathers, everyone belongs

CONTENT

- What Francine is seeing in Ottawa's fall market. Through the lens of all her client types.
- Federal employee fall posting season. Mortgage considerations for those moving or settling.
- A newcomer story. Someone who made Ottawa home this year.

CTA

"Whether you've been here for decades or just arrived, let's talk about what's next."

YEAR-END · DECEMBER

C

"A Year of Belonging"

Gratitude, reflection, and the people who found home this year

CONTENT

- The year in review. The clients, the stories, the conversations that mattered.
- One powerful story that captures 2026. A client who found home against the odds.
- Ottawa community gratitude. What Francine values about this city.
- A look ahead. "2027 is going to be a year where more people find where they belong."

CTA

Soft, referral-oriented. "Know someone who needs to hear this?"

04 SELECTIVE

Bank of Canada Response Emails

2 to 3 per year maximum · only when meaningful

Not every BoC announcement gets an email. Only when Francine can frame it through a real Ottawa conversation. When the announcement meaningfully impacts her Ottawa clients, especially federal employees, first-time buyers, and renewals.

STRUCTURE

1. Open with a real conversation. "A client called me this morning and asked..."
2. Francine's honest, plain-language take. Through the Ottawa public servant lens.
3. "What does a rate change mean when your income is indexed and your job is permanent?"
4. What it actually means for the reader's situation.
5. CTA. "If you're wondering what this means for you, that's exactly the conversation I'm here for."

SUBJECT LINE EXAMPLES

"A client asked me what today's announcement means for her"

"Here's what I'm telling my Ottawa clients today"

"What today's rate decision means when your income is stable"

05 TRIGGERED

Welcome Sequence

Three-email sequence for new subscribers

A warm onboarding for new subscribers or clients entering Francine's world.

EMAIL	TIMING	CONTENT
1. "Welcome"	Immediate	Who Francine is, what she stands for, how she works. "Whoever you're building a home with, you belong here." Brief, warm, personal.
2. "How I Work"	Day 3	Francine's approach. The conversation before the application. What to expect, what she'll ask, why it matters. Ottawa-specific context.
3. "Your Next Step"	Day 7	Soft CTA. "If you're thinking about it, even just thinking, that's enough to start. Here's how to reach me." Contact info, no pressure.

EMAIL FORMAT STANDARDS

Recipients should recognize a Francine email by feel.

PLUS TRIGGERED SENDS

BoC emails fire selectively, only when there's a real conversation worth sharing (2 to 3 per year max).
Welcome sequence triggered automatically for new subscribers.

WHAT FRANCINE'S EMAILS NEVER DO

The discipline of what to exclude defines the welcome.

Every restriction below protects the trust that makes the email list a safe space for every reader.

OFF-BRAND FOR FRANCINE'S INBOX

- ✗ Use urgency or scarcity language
- ✗ Lead with rates or market data without a human story
- ✗ Sound like a newsletter template
- ✗ Include generic mortgage tips without an inclusive or Ottawa-specific lens
- ✗ Feel like they came from a marketing department
- ✗ Assume the reader's family structure, identity, or background
- ✗ Treat inclusion as a sidebar. It's woven through everything.
- ✗ Use "husband and wife." Always "partners" or inclusive framing.

THE FILTER

Before any email sends, the question is the same. Does this make every reader feel like they belong here, or could any broker's marketing department have sent it? If it's the second one, it doesn't go.
