A year of NL stories.

Built on Here

NL identity and homeownership. The towns, the culture, the particular pride of owning something in Newfoundland.

Client stories

Milestones, coming-home stories, and anonymized moments that show why word-of-mouth matters here.

NL market education

Market updates, BoC reactions, provincial programs, renewals, and local math at NL price points.

Community and cause

Purple Day, local giving, family, cabin life, and the values that make Nikki feel like Nikki.

CONTENT PILLAR MIX

PILLAR	SHARE	POSTS / MONTH
"Built on Here" (NL identity + homeownership)	25%	2
Client stories + milestones	25%	2
NL market / education / BoC	25%	2
Community, cause, personal	25%	2

The filter. Could a broker in Calgary post this? If yes, it is not Nikki's.

MONTHLY RHYTHM

Two posts a week. One Newfoundland rhythm.

WEEK CONTENT

Week 1	"Built on Here" / NL market update
Week 2	Client story or educational (NL-specific programs)
Week 3	Community / cause / values post
Week 4	"If not me" moment; advocacy or milestone reflection

TWENTY YEAR THREAD

Make the milestone a lens, not a brag.

- Twenty years means Nikki has watched first-time buyers become repeat clients, parents, landlords, renovators, and referral sources.
- Use Q2-Q4 as a reflection thread. One or two touchpoints per month, never a single self-congratulatory campaign.
- Keep the story rooted in NL market changes, kitchen-table conversations, handshakes, and the pride of getting keys here.

"If not me, then who?"
